ANS by laws

Along with this newsletter, members will also have received a copy of the American Name Society bylaws, with proposed changes to the bylaws marked within the text. These changes were made to reflect the revised organization and duties of the ANS officers, changes in the dues categories and where that information is available, and other minor corrections to the bylaws that have accrued over the years. According to the bylaws, the membership shall vote to accept or decline these changes at an annual business meeting at which a quorum of the membership is present. This meeting will be held Saturday, January 9, 2011 in the Pitt Room of the Wyndham Grand Downtown Pittsburgh Hotel at 11:15 am. A quorum for purposes of ratifying bylaws changes is defined as 10% of the ANS membership or 12 individual members, whichever is the lower number.

Call for Papers:

American Name Society panel at the Modern Languages Association annual meeting, January 5-8, 2012, Seattle, Washington.

Names and Naming: Investigation and exploration of significant or interesting patterns of names and naming practices. Focus on literature, linguistics, rhetoric, or pedagogy of names.

Submit 250-word abstract as Word document to Donna Lillian at lilliandl@appstate.edu. Deadline for submissions is March 1, 2011.

You do not need to be a member of the American Name Society to submit an abstract, but if your paper is accepted for presentation, then you must become a member in order to present in our panel.

Emerging Scholar Award

In 2007 the American Name Society established the ANS Emerging Scholar Award (ANSESA), funded anonymously in the amount of $250, to be awarded to the undergraduate or graduate student who submits the best paper accepted for presentation at the annual meeting.

In addition to the cash prize, the student will receive a two-year membership in ANS, as well as assistance in preparing the paper for publication in NAMES or another journal. The paper will also be designated as the prize-winning student paper in the ANS annual meeting program. In years that no paper is deemed worthy, no award will be given.

Students who are presenting papers at the annual meeting will be notified of the rules and the deadline for submission.

Name of the Year

The American Name Society requests nominations for the "Name of the Year for 2010." Last year's winner, announced in Baltimore, was Salish Sea. The name selected this year will be the one that best illustrates, through its creation and/or use during the past eighteen months, important trends in North American culture. All categories of names and naming, including given names, surnames, brand names, placenames, street names, building names, pseudonyms, and names from fiction, are eligible. A committee of the ANS Executive Council will select three to five candidates from the nominees to be voted on by the members of the American Name Society, with the winner to be announced in January 2011 at the annual meeting of the Society.

Nominations must be received until January 4th, 2011. Send your nominations, along with a brief, one-paragraph rationale, by U.S. mail or e-mail to: Dr. Cleveland K. Evans, Psychology Department, Bellevue University, 1000 Galvin Road South, Bellevue, NE 68005-3098. cleveland.evans@bellevue.edu

Award for Best Article in NAMES

At its annual meeting in San Francisco January 8-11, 2009, the American Name Society agreed to provide an annual award for the best article in NAMES.

The Award Committee consists of the Executive Council Members at Large. For 2010, they are:

American Name Society

Annual Meeting

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

January 6-9, 2011

The American Name Society (ANS), a professional organization devoted to the study of names and their role in society, will hold its annual meeting in conjunction with the Linguistic Society of America (LSA), along with the American Dialect Society (ADS), the North American Association for the History of the Language Sciences (NAAHoLS), and the Society for the Study of the Indigenous Languages of the Americas (SSILA), January 7-10, 2010. The meeting will be held at the former Hilton Pittsburgh, 600 Commonwealth Place, Pittsburgh, PA 15222. (The hotel is undergoing re-branding; its new affiliation will be announced at the end of September.)

Those wishing to attend and participate in ANS sessions should be members of the American Name Society and pay the appropriate LSA conference registration fee, as well as the ANS registration fee--$20 for regular members or $10 for emeritus members, students, spouses, and guests--to cover expenses for items not provided by LSA. The LSA fee allows one access to all LSA and other allied organizations' sessions, the plenary sessions, the book exhibits, and the job placement service.

HIGHLIGHTS: The meeting will include papers on every aspect of onomastics and feature a special ANS panel session entitled "Onomastics and War." The traditional ANS banquet will be on Friday, January 7, at Lidia's Pittsburgh, 1400 Smallman Street. (Lidia is Lidia Bastianich of PBS cooking show fame for those among you who are foodies.) Dinner for members and their guests will consist of a choice of an endless pasta tasting trio (at least one of which will be vegetarian) or scallopine of chicken, caesar salad, Tuscan and focaccia breads with pesto and tapenade, coffee/hot tea/iced tea, and dessert for $45 per diner, which includes taxes and gratuity. Drinks during the social hour preceding dinner and wine during dinner may be purchased separately. Because we must commit to the number of diners before several weeks prior to the meeting, please register for the banquet as soon as possible.

Regular sessions will begin at 4:00 pm on Thursday, January 6, which should allow most travelers to arrive on time, but due to different airline schedules, it may be necessary to travel the day before, Wednesday, January 5. The final ANS session will end at or before 6:00 pm on Saturday, January 8.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The Grand Pittsburgh Downtown Hotel has reserved a block of rooms for those attending the 2011 Annual Meeting. Each guest room offers breathtaking views of the city or the famed Three Rivers. The conference rate for rooms at the hotel will only be available through DECEMBER 16, 2010, so reserve your room now! Note that reservations made through the former Hilton Pittsburgh website will be fully honored under the present reservations system.

AIR TRANSPORTATION: Pittsburgh can be reached by air most easily from the Pittsburgh International Airport (PIT). The airport is served by the major U.S. carriers, as well as by several discount airlines including AirTran, JetBlue, and Southwest. Members are encouraged to check rates at the discount airlines' websites, since not all travel websites post information for these flights.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION: By far the most economical method of ground transportation from Pittsburgh International Airport to downtown Pittsburgh is via the Port Authority Airport Flyer bus service. The bus stops very close to the hotel where the meeting will be held and the one-way fare is $2.75 (exact change required).

Distance from PIT to hotel:	17 miles
Time:	25 minutes
Limousine:	$33.00 (est.)
Bus:	$2.75 (actual cost, exact change required)
Super Shuttle:	$19.00 (actual cost, shared ride, one-way)
Taxi:	$32.00+ (est.)

If you have published in any of these formats or have relevant, informational brochures to share, please bring copies with you for our members and others to see.
