

The American Name Society Annual Meeting

Boston, Massachusetts, January 3-6, 2013

Call for Papers

The American Name Society (ANS), a professional organization devoted to the study of names and their role in society, invites proposals for papers for its annual meeting to be held in conjunction with the Linguistic Society of America (LSA), at the Boston Marriott Copley Place, January 3-6, 2013. Papers in any area of onomastics are appropriate.

Send proposals by e-mail attachment (preferably in a .doc or .docx format) to Donna Lillian at ANS1stVP@yahoo.com, with “ANS Proposal” in the subject line. Proposals should include a précis of up to 500 words, as well as a 100-word abstract for publication in the meeting programs. The deadline for receipt of proposals is July 1, 2012, but presenters who may need additional time to secure international payments and travel visas to the United States are urged to submit their proposal as soon as possible. All proposals will be evaluated anonymously, and their authors will be notified on or before August 25, 2012.

Presenters must

- be current members of ANS in order to present;
- pay the LSA conference registration fee; and
- pay a small registration fee to ANS (to cover expenses not covered by LSA).

For information about the American Name Society see www.wtsn.binghamton.edu/ANS/

For information concerning the Linguistic Society of America see www.lsadc.org

Deadline for proposals: July 1, 2012